

Heidi De Jonge has been pastoring the Celebration congregation at Harderwyk since October of 2008. She is also the pastor of diaconal ministries, working closely with the director and board of Neighbors Plus to serve the community and to help members of Harderwyk discover their call to serve in the kingdom. Before coming to Harderwyk, Heidi graduated from Dordt College (1999) with degrees in psychology and philosophy and from Calvin Seminary (2005) with her M.Div. Upon graduating from seminary, she became Calvin Seminary's pastor for discernment (2005-08) walking next to individuals who were in the process of discerning their calling. Heidi's husband Tim is also a pastor, currently serving as the spiritual care facilitator for Hospice of Holland. Heidi and Tim are both CRC pastors' kids and they have three pastors' kids of their own: Samara, Naomi, and Zoe.

Find Rest

a solid rock under your feet
breathing room for your soul

We need both stability and freedom. We need a place to stand, to be anchored and secure—we need a ROCK. We also need a place to breathe, to stretch, to wonder—we need ROOM. God is both. Eugene Peterson translates Psalm 62:2 this way: "He's solid rock under my feet; breathing room for my soul."

Let's get together and rest. We will read Psalm 62, but more importantly, Psalm 62 will read us. We're going to pray the psalm and sing the psalm and talk about the psalm. Some of us may even want to memorize it!

As God works this psalm into our hearts and minds and bodies, we'll listen for two things: God's strength and God's love. He is the solid strong ROCK under our feet and the loving breathing ROOM for our soul.

*One thing God has spoken,
two things I have heard:
that you, O God, are strong,
and that you, O Lord, are loving.
Psalm 62:11-12*
